The regular meeting of Town Council was held on the above date at 6:00 p.m. at Town Hall, all requirements of the Freedom of Information Act having been satisfied:

Present were:  Mike Perkis, Mayor
                Jerry Kaynard, Mayor Pro Tem
                Hartley Cooper, Councilwoman
                Susan Middaugh, Councilwoman
                Pat O'Neil, Councilman
                Mary Jane Watson, Councilwoman

Mayor Perkis led the Pledge of Allegiance, followed by the prayer by Councilwoman Watson. There were eleven members in the audience.

Motion was made by Councilman Kaynard, seconded by Councilman O'Neil, to amend the agenda to hear the bond counsel presentation after the audit presentation, carried unanimously.

Mayor Perkis introduced Mr. Larry Finney of Greene Finney & Horton, whose firm conducted the Town's fiscal year 2013 audit. Mr. Finney stated the Town's audit obtained an unmodified opinion, which is the best rating a Town can receive. There is a healthy fund balance. The revenues were over budget due to licenses and property tax; the expenses were over budget due to capital outlay and public safety costs. The net position (fund balance) of the Water and Sewer increased over last year. The funds received from Charleston County School District to help with the school lines were a significant factor for the net position increase.

Mayor Perkis then introduced Paul Trouche of Haynsworth Sinkler Boyd law firm to present information regarding a possible bond application. Mr. Trouche stated the Town would be able to apply for a $4.1 million unrestricted general obligation bond without a referendum. This figure is based on assessed value, and it backs out the balance of the current general obligation bond.

Mayor Perkis opened the meeting for public comment. Bill Connelly, 3318 Jasper Blvd., expressed his concern to Council regarding the path to Breach Inlet beside his house, and the dangers of people climbing on the rocks, especially on his property. Mayor Perkis stated this issue was scheduled for Executive Session this evening.

Mark Howard, 1820 Central Ave., stated Council should reconsider the proposed construction ordinance as it does not allow for the quality of life on the island; and it will be difficult to manage the ordinance toward the end of construction when many different construction companies will be completing their parts of the project.

Chuck Galis, 1817 Back Street, asked Council to reconsider the construction ordinance also. He questioned what the benefit would be to the citizens if the regulations were relaxed.
