

Mark Permar
Permar, Inc.

Architect and a member of the Urban Land Institute. He has served as a member of various design review boards and conservancy groups charged with the responsibility of balancing manmade and natural environments. Permar has forty years of experience work with the Kiawah Management Plan.

- Mark is an architect whose involvement in the development of Kiawah Island has spanned more than 30 years, with a stint as Vice President of Planning and Design.
- He has served as a member of various design review boards and conservancy groups charged with the responsibility of balancing manmade and natural environments.
- University of Cincinnati & member of the Urban Land Institute.