

Scott Parker, FASLA

DesignWorks

DesignWorks is an international Landscape Architecture, Urban Design and Planning firm located in, and inspired by the landscape and urban form of Charleston, SC. Our work focuses on creating life-enriching places that meld environmental enhancement, stewardship and social engagement. Mr. Parker has taught at the Clemson Center for Architecture in Charleston and at the Harvard Graduate School of Design Career Discovery Program. Scott currently is a Board Member of the Charleston Parks Conservancy. He also serves on the City of Charleston Peninsula Task Force and the Advocacy Committee of Historic Charleston Foundation. Scott is past Chairman of the Sullivan's Island Planning Commission.

- Founder and partner of DesignWorks,
- Taught at the Clemson Center for Architecture in Charleston and at the Harvard Graduate School of Design Career Discovery Program.
- Currently is a Board Member of the Charleston Parks Conservancy
- Past Chairman of the Sullivan's Island Planning Commission.
- LA from UGA MLA Harvard 2018 ASLA Council of Fellows, Landscape Architecture's highest honor.