

Water Treatment Process

How It Works

Alum (aluminum sulfate) – Helps the impurities stick together to form bigger particles called floc. Gentle mixing allows the floc particles to grow bigger and heavier.

Chloramine – Long-lasting disinfectant.

Chlorine Dioxide – Disinfectant.

Filtration – Filtration is a physical process that removes very tiny particles.

Fluoride – Added for dental health. View our fluoride position statement at: www.charlestonwater.com/positionstatement.

